

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of Leyland St John

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The PCC is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of Leyland St John's complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by:

- keeping personal data up to date
- by storing and destroying it securely
- by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data
- by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure
- ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at St John's;

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The three legal bases which allow us to process your data are:

- Your explicit consent so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing your data is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing your data is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent, or with statutory authorities where there is a legal requirement to do so.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out by the Church of England. Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the financial year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data you have the right to: -

- request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of Leyland St John's holds about you;
- request that the PCC of Leyland St John's corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC of Leyland St John's to retain such data;
- withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- request that the data controller provide you with your personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability),
- where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable)
- lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
